Concord Conservatory of Music Acton Open House on August 23rd

On Wednesday, August 23rd from 4 – 7 pm, bring your family to The Concord Conservatory's Acton Open House held at St. Matthew's United Methodist Church, 435 Central Street, Acton. One of the most popular features of the Open House is the instrument petting zoo. Whether you are 4 or 94, the petting zoo enables you to explore a variety of instruments in a hands-on way. CCM faculty will demonstrate how to hold, play, and experience these various instruments.

Attend the Open House and enter the raffle to win a free semester of group classes at CCM for the 2017 fall semester!

Join us to learn about our Suzuki instruction for violin for students ages 4 and up, which is based on Dr. Shinichi Suzuki's world renowned and proven philosophy. CCM's comprehensive Suzuki instruction provides the tools so any child can learn to play the violin. In addition to private lessons, you can also explore the wide variety of group classes that are available for all ages. Register for a group class at the Open House and receive a 10% discount.

For more information, email info@concordconservatory.org, call (978) 369-0010 or visit our website at www.ConcordConservatory.org. The Concord Conservatory of Music is the area's nonprofit community music school, located at 1317 Main Street in the West Concord Union Church. Financial assistance is available.

About CCM

Founded in 2005, the Concord Conservatory of Music is an energetic community of people who are deepening their involvement in music education. Each year, CCM opens its doors to more than 430 students, offering programming for all ages, backgrounds, and abilities. As a non-profit school, CCM serves Concord and the surrounding 15 communities. CCM offers a full curriculum that includes private instruction, group classes, and performance opportunities.
