August 28, 2017

For Immediate Release

Contact: Susan Seger
978-369-0010
sseger@ConcordConservatory.org

Concord Conservatory of Music (CCM) Open House

On Saturday, September 9th from 1 – 3 pm bring your family to the Concord Conservatory of Music Open House. One of the most popular features of the Open House is the instrument petting zoo. Whether you are 4 or 94, the petting zoo enables you to explore a variety of instruments in a hands-on way. CCM faculty will demonstrate how to hold, play, and experience these various instruments. Attend the Open House and enter the raffle for a chance to win a free CCM Group Class for the 2017 fall semester!

In addition to private lessons, you can also explore the wide variety of group classes that are available for both kids and adults. Register for a group class at the Open House and receive a 10% discount.

Registering for lessons at CCM provides a music community that offers workshops, master classes, ensembles, and numerous performance opportunities A thorough CCM placement process ensures that every student takes lessons with a faculty member best suited to his or her needs. For new students seeking private lessons, visit CCM's website www.ConcordConservatory.org and submit a Student Interest Form, or just call (978) 369-0010 so that we can learn more about your needs. Financial assistance is available.

For more information on private lessons or other CCM programs, please call (978)-369-0010 or email info@ConcordConservatory.org. CCM is located at the West Concord Union Church at 1317 Main Street in Concord.

About CCM
Founded in 2005, the Concord Conservatory of Music is an active community of people who are deepening their involvement in music education. Each year, CCM opens its doors to more than 430 students, offering programming for all ages, backgrounds, and abilities. As a non-profit school, CCM serves Concord and the surrounding 15 communities. CCM offers a full curriculum that includes private instruction, group classes, and performance opportunities.

##